MHS Memories <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • History—Miss Berger: the work was difficult, but interesting. • English—Marley & Sykes: I still remember one of the Kipling poems we had to memorize. • Lit. & Journalism—Mr. Grimes: poor man, our journalism class probably made early retirement look very attractive. • Math—Mr. Todd: I actually got algebra (then—don't recall any of it now). That achievement verges on miraculous. • The "wow" factor walking into the new high school—seeing the inlaid Indian head in the lobby. Way cool dude! • Hanging out before school and at lunch time with my friends • Cafeteria lunchtime—did we get apple crisp 3-4x a week? I now suffer from "crispaphobia". Is there a rehab center for that affliction? 	Town Memories <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working summers at the Manhattan Mercury as a proofreader & ad runner—going to Duckwall's via the alley door for morning break—gleefully eating luscious pecan rolls, pre-calorie-counting days! • Mona, Shannon, JoAnne, Norma & I washing our friends' cars on the river. • Drinking cherry cokes at the drugstore with my buddies • Dragging "Main" in Glenda's truck and sleigh-riding. • Fun times at Mona's house. The New Year's Eve party (that I don't recall)—Mona said we had lots of fun. • Picnics: burning steaks with Jane B. We pre-dated the Cajun cooking craze. • We all had fun—fun—fun as I recall, & any hard times or heartaches have been erased by time, or perhaps,
