Town Memories My parents moved to Manhattan in 1955 to become the distributor of the Topeka Daily Capital newspaper. They always made me help, but the benefits weren't too bad, as I always had a car and was free to go almost where I wanted within reason. Bad part was I always had to get up early to run the paper route. And then I had to help again with the afternoon paper route. In between this, I went to high school and played on the basketball team. Don't remember studying much.	MHS Memories I remember Mr. Buller and his geometry class, Mr. Boles in biology, Mr. Rogers and his special angles in trig, and who could forget Herb Bishop or Ed Dissinger. I remember the first day of class in my senior year my name was called on the PA system for the whole school to report to Dissinger's office. He promptly accused me of smoking, because someone had seen me doing so in my car during the summer. Who, me?? Dissinger would always tell the basketball team members that when we had night games and did not have a daytime practice, he did not want any team members going to the pool hall. Looking back, it was probably where he wanted us to go to stay off the streets! At the hole-in-one pool hall in Aggieville would be Noyes, Padgett, Dunn, Pettie, Lowman, Frey, Kershner, Starnes, and probably others I forgot. I always liked the song, "White Sport Coat" by Marty Robbins, and I think that I owned one when I was in high school, but I only vaguely remember going to the Proms,
